Running your own business. One that doesn't exist yet.

The Work

- Decode what makes you different.

- Launch it and test it with real customers.
- Keep going until you can look back and say, "Heck ya."

The Deal

- No fee.
- You fund yourself while you build.
- Substantial time and effort required.
- If we both see a fit, Chris may invest capital for equity. No promises.

The Ideal Candidate

- ☐ Demonstrable spikiness. You've done unusual but useful things, unusually well.
- ☐ Self-propulsion. You take action without anyone goading you on.
- ☐ Builder's itch. You want to build something meaningful of your own.
- ☐ Can afford patience. You don't need immediate success, financially or socially.
- ☐ Get along with Chris. You'll work closely with him the whole time.
